Where to Eat

A Guide to Dining in Pukekohe

Pukekohe is a unique destination for a lovely day out, offering country charm with city sophistication just 40 minutes driving from central Auckland.

Whether you are in need of breakfast, brunch, lunch or dinner, Pukekohe has a diverse variety of delicious eateries dishing up food and fusions from all over the world.

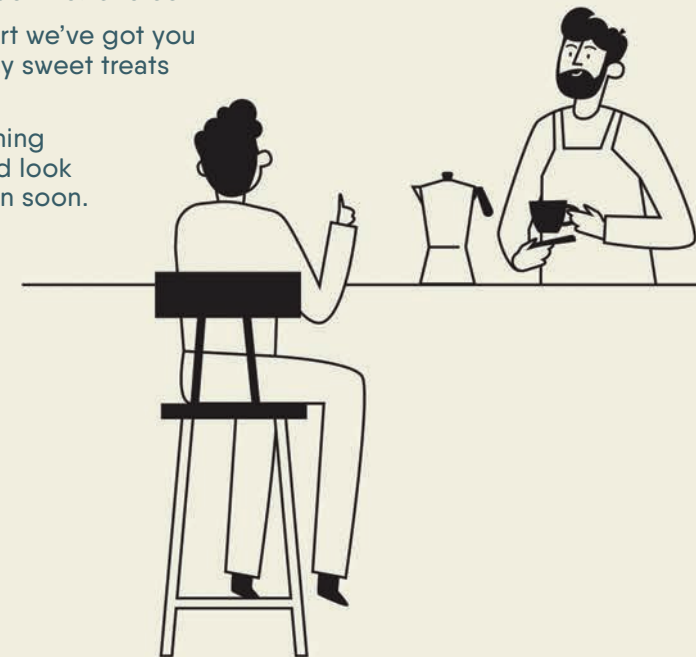

From classic Kiwi dishes to international cuisine, you have over 70 options to choose from! Many of our eateries cater to dietary requirements and have menu items to suit. With so many 'award-winning' eateries, you will have a hard time finding a favourite place to dine.

Pukekohe is known as the 'Food Bowl' of the nation, so you can be sure that the ingredients on your plate, where possible, have been locally sourced and harvested from the many market gardens that Pukekohe is so famously known for.

If you consider yourself a bit of a coffee connoisseur or are just in need of a caffeine hit, take a look at the 'Café & Coffee' section of this booklet - you will be spoiled for choice.

And if you're a fan of dessert we've got you covered there too with many sweet treats on offer.

We hope you enjoy your dining experience in Pukekohe and look forward to hosting you again soon.
